Holy Name Clurch Scene Grand Festivities Wednesday

Father Connor Handsomely Remembered by Adults and Children.

SERMON BY REV. FATHER LYNCH.

Holy Name church, at Fourth and O streets, was the scene of unwouted Wednesday when reverend pastor, Father John T. O'Connor, celebrated the twenty-fifthe nuniversary of his ordination. For a month or more the ladies, gentlemen, teachers and children of the parish had been preparing for the event, and so complete were the arrange-ments that there was not a hitch While the julile proper was cele New York, raised twenty young men brated on Wednesday, the festivities to the dignity of the priesthood at began with the school commencement exercises on the night previous It was not only the silver jubilee of Father O'Connor, but of three other priests of this diocese, Father William Bnekman, of New Haven; Father Joseph Hogarty, of Lebanon, and Father Domiale Higgins, of West The other three jubilar ians celebrated their anniversaries at their respective churches.

The ladies and gentlemen tastefully decorated the body of Holy Name church with evergreeus, and along the walls were handsomely painted quotations from the Serip tures on matters pertaining to the priesthood. The sanctuary was decorated with green plants and white with a glory of lights. At the top figures 1883-1908. The priest had to brave the cold of winter and the heat of summer, the storms and the hails of the different seasons. The priest has to climb the hills and struggle down the valleys, niways a wntehful shepherd over his flock. He has to face smallpox, yellow fever and other dread scourges, he never fulters. Whatever good is self-diffusing, he said, and the work of the priest is good because it tends to spread happiness The priest is for the people, not the people for the priest. He hoped that the congregation would continue to honor and heed the advice of Father O'Connor, so that one day they would enjoy with him the beatitudes of heaven. In closing he spoke of the holy eucharist and of

PAULISTS ARE NOW IN CHARGE.

Chieago Cntholies had a celebration in that city this week which as presence and music. n demoastration upon the part of American Catholics was second only to that of the recent centennry celebration in New York City. The ocea-sion marked the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of St. Mary's, the oldest parish church in Chicago. The celebration began last Sunday morning when Archbishop Quigley officiated at Pontifical high mass at St. Mary's. In the evening solemn vespers were suag and from that time until last night there was some special event every morning and evening. So great was the crowd that sought admission to the church last Sunday that only those holding cards were allowed to enter the edifice. Monday morning a requiem high mass was celebrated for the repose of the souls of deceased mem-bers of the congregation. Mouday evening the Rev. Father P. J. O'Cnlaghnn, pastor of St. Mnry's, gave a linner to the former pastors of St Mary's

The festivities reached a climax Friday night when a public mass meeting was held at the Auditorium. Mayor of Chicago, presided, and the speakers and their subjects were as follows:

Kentucky's Fight Seemed to Overshadow all Other Obstacles.

Compromise Candidate Was Chosen to Succeed John W. Yerkes.

GLOOM

Republicans from every State in the Union and from all the Territories and colonial possessions of the United States assembled in convention at Chicago on Tnesday to nominate candidntes for the Presidency and Vice Presidency and to ndopt a platform upon which these candidates were to stand or fall. Of course there were tens of thousands of visitors at the mammoth Colisenm where the convention was held, but the Internecine strife in Kentucky overshadowed all other interests. The national Republican convention opened at noon Tuesday, and nt first the indications were that the machine was greased and that whole show would be over within twenty-four hours. The call to order and the prayer, offered by Bishop Muldoon, took up sixteen minutes of the time of the first session. After that Senator Burrows, of Michigaa, was elected temporary Chairman, and was expected to sound the keynate of Republican policies for the next four years. He had his notes all right and read from them in a voice inaudible to 90 per cent. of the delegates. At 2:03 o'clock the convention adjourned until noon of the next day, with nothing done.

The Credentials Committee met orvernight and seated all the Tnft delegates irrespective of the claims made by adherents of Fairbanks, Knox, Canaon and other Presidential candidates. Striving to Win Big Success.

Tuesday will be Y. M. I. day at the White City, and It promises to be a record breaker for that resort this season. About 1,200 of the best hustlers among the young men in Louisville and New Albany are striving to make the uffair a success The enterprise will be under the joint auspices of Mackln and Trinity Councils, of Louisville, and Unity Council, of New Albany, Each of these councils has appointed its sev eral committees, which are working conjointly. Over all is the following committee: Engene J. Cooney, J. A Ashabranner, Andrew M. Kieffer, A Ringenberg, Ben J. Sand, Charles F Pfeffer, William Hillerich, John S. Martel, Edward P. Wulf, Charles S. Raidy, James T. Shelley and John J. Sullivan, Sr.

Children will be admitted to the park both afternoon and evening without charge. Special arrangements have been made for those who like to dance, and an excellent band will be in attendance, Mackin's Social Club, assisted by members of the other two councils, will have charge of the dancing pavillion. Whatever funds accrue will be used in receiving and entertaining delegates to the Su preme Council next fall,
